

Youth Mentorship/Community Support Resources

Big Brothers Big Sisters (780) 424-8181: Offers no-cost mentoring programs that match young folks with a professionally trained adult mentor who will act as a positive role-model and be a supportive relationship for kids to lean on.

Offers nine registered Community Clubs that provide kids a safe and fun place to go after school/in the summer, where they can interact with role models and peers and enjoy a wide array of programming.

<https://bigbrothersbigsisters.ca/our-programs>

Coyote Pride Youth Mentoring Program (780) 481-3451: a no cost in-school program for both Indigenous and non-Indigenous youth who have a willingness to learn about Indigenous culture and teachings (meet once a week). Offered in the following schools:

- Prince Charles School
- Belmead School
- Sherwood School
- Brightview School
- Athlone School
- Inglewood School
- John A. MacDougall School
- Norwood School

<https://bentarrow.ca/coyote-pride/>

Youth Unlimited Edmonton (780) 437-3000: Provides multiple drop-in community Centre spaces for teens throughout Edmonton. Centres are supported with a team of community youth workers who help to mentor/ create supportive relationships with youth, provide homework support, play games and more! Free of cost.

Uncles & Aunts at Large Edmonton (780) 452-5791: A program for children ages 6 to 18 from single-parent families where volunteers provide companionship, mentorship and support.

www.unclesatlarge.ab.ca

Mirrors Mentorship (through Islamic Family and Social Services Association): A mentorship program aimed at connecting Muslim youth with mentors who understand and can support them

info@ifssa.ca

Mentorship and Leadership Program- Africa Centre (780) 455-5423: A Program for youth ages 12-30 that matches them with young adults, adults and professionals that may have similar life experiences, barriers, share a common cultural heritage and interests/goals in life.

info@africacentre.ca

Girl Guides of Canada 1-877-564-6188: An opportunity for young women and girls to find community, social engagement, enrichment, grow leadership skills and participate in art, science and outdoor programming.

info@girlguides.ca